Assignments & Challenges

Blog Assignments

The following are the minimum requirements for your weekly blogging activities.

1. You are required to post a two paragraph, or more, response to the question of the week every week. Your response must be related to the topic and may be comprised of the following: your opinions, personal reactions, examples, appropriate questions, and thoughtful comments responding to a classmate's post.
2. It is expected that you comment on a posting from of one or more classmate every week. This reflective comment can be incorporated into your own response or it may be added as a separate posting. Please state the name of the classmate whose post you are commenting on.
3. It is expected that you proofread and edit your posts. Please do not use any text message shorthand in your posts.
4. New questions will be posted by your instructors every Friday. Responses must be posted by the following Thursday. (For example, a question will be posted on Friday, September 9, 2011. You have until Thursday September 15, 2011 to post your two paragraph response to the assigned question(s) and comment on the postings of any classmates.

Blog Procedures

Grading

- You will receive one point for posting a thoughtful two paragraph response on time.
- You will receive one point for adding a post that is relevant and related to the question.
- You will receive one point for making one comment, or more, on what a fellow classmate (s) posts.
- You can receive a total of three points for each weekly posting.
